

Finding us is easy

Safestay at Elephant & Castle is in Southwark, two minutes walk from Elephant & Castle underground station, just south of London's River Thames and in one of the oldest parts of the city. Charles Dickens, Charlie Chaplin and even William Shakespeare all lived nearby once upon a time. It'll soon be home to The Shard as well, set to be Western Europe's tallest building. Safestay at Elephant & Castle is an ideal choice if you're looking for a hostel in London, budget accommodation for the Olympic Games, or just a fantastic short break in London that won't break the bank. We're also really close to the main London tourist attractions, like London Bridge and Borough Market.

Directions:

Walworth Road (A215), Make your way to Westminster or Vauxhall Bridge to Elephant & Castle,
-To Bayswater if you are coming from the North,
-To Croydon if you coming from the South east,
From Dover take the A2 to Elephant & Castle.

Nearest tube/train station:

Elephant & Castle (Bakerloo line/ Northern Line) OR Kennington (Northern Line).

From the Elephant & Castle underground station, take the Northern Line exit or Shopping Centre exit. Turn left out of the station. Then turn left again at the roundabout onto Walworth Road. Go under the bridge for another 400 metres and you'll see us on the right, opposite the Cuming Museum.
